ABOUT IMA HYDERABAD CITY (ESTABLISHED 1938)

Hyderabad Provincial Branch of the Indian Medical Association (IMA) which is the oldest branch in our state of Telangana (erstwhile State of Hyderabad, then Andhra Pradesh) took its root in the year 1938-1939. Major. Dr. M. Govind Rajulu Naidu (husband of Smt. Sarojini Naidu, the Nightingale of India), Dr. G. S. Melkote and a handful of selected Professionals were instrumental in forming the Hyderabad Provincial Branch situated in Sultan Bazar, Hyderabad. Major Dr. M. Govind Rajulu Naidu therefore has been aptly named as the Father and Founder President of IMA, Hyderabad Provincial Branch (1939). He was also the President of All Indian Medical Association in 1932. Dr. G. S. Melkote, Founder Secretary, was an illustrious student of Major Dr. M. G. Naidu.

The IMA Movement was further given a boost by the dedicated work of stalwarts like Col. Dr. Kailash Nath Waghray, Dr. Jairam, Dr. G. K. Kirloskar, Dr. Hardikar, Dr. Bankat Chandra, Dr. Ranga Charyulu, Dr. Shantabai Satwalekar, Dr. U. R. Pargaonkar, Dr. Vasudev Rao, Dr. Manickya Raju, Dr. Shastri, Dr. Roop Karan, Dr. P. Ram Chander, Dr. (Mrs.) Shrikhande, Dr. S. R. Saksena, Dr. R. Venkat Rao, Dr. Shankar Rao, Dr. R. D. Davare and Major. S. L. Bhatia to name a few. These dedicated doctors not only consolidated the Hyderabad Provincial Branch, but also spread their tentacles to the entire district Head Quarters of the erstwhile State of Hyderabad under Nizam's rule and to the Marathwada, Karnataka and Telangana areas of the erstwhile state.

It is due to the dedicated and sincere hard work of Dr. Uttam Rao. R. Pargaonkar that IMA Building came into existence on 27th December 1953. He was instrumental in requesting Govt. of Hyderabad, Shri. Phool Chand Gandhi, the then Hon'ble Health Minister and owing to the keen interest taken by Major General S. L. Bhatia, the then Inspector General, Medical and Health Services, Govt. of Hyderabad has kindly granted the present site of 2565 sq. yards on 99 years lease dated 12th June 1952.

Dr. S. G. Sen, the President of the 30th IMA Conference held at Hyderabad, hosted by IMA Hyderabad Provincial Branch, declared the building open on 27th December 1953 in the presence of a thousand delegates from all over India.

Dr. U. R. Pargaonkar, who served the IMA Hyderabad Provincial Branch as Joint Secretary, Secretary, Vice-President and President, was indefatigable, in his efforts to build up its strength and stability. To enshrine his memory, the spacious hall in the ground floor of the building was named Dr. U. R. Pargaonkar Hall.

The First floor auditorium was constructed from the generous donations of Rs 70,000 from Trustees of the Estate of Late Smt. Kashibai Kirloskar. Subsequently, this auditorium was renovated and donations were received from IMA Hyderabad City Branch and its members and Dr. B. G. Ranade Trust.

At the combined meeting of the provincial Branches of IMA of the erstwhile Hyderabad State and Andhra State Branches, the following resolution was unanimously passed under the Presidentship of Col. Dr. K. N. Waghray in the IMA hall at Hyderabad on 23rd November 1957 that "The Branches of the IMA in Telangana and Andhra State amalgamate and form the Andhra Pradesh State Branch of IMA". The merger of Telangana part of Hyderabad State Branch and the Andhra State Branch of the IMA came into effect from 24th November 1957, the date of first Andhra Pradesh Medical Conference held at Hyderabad hosted by IMA Hyderabad City Branch. Thus IMA Hyderabad Provincial Branch is named as IMA Hyderabad City Branch.

It was further declared that the following three institutions shall be allowed free use of the premises of the IMA Building Trust Estate viz., 1) Major Naidu Memorial Library, 2) The office of IMA Hyderabad City Branch, 3) The office of the Provincial Branch of IMA (i.e., IMA State Branch of AP, now Telangana State) except paying maintenance as decided from time to time.

The IMA Hyderabad City Branch celebrated its Golden Jubilee Year in the year 1989. The ceremonies were inaugurated by the erstwhile Governor of Andhra Pradesh Smt. Kumud Ben Joshi. The Finale of the year long activities was the hosting of two days CME programmes which was very well attended and the valedictory function was presided over by Dr. Marri Chenna Reddy, Chief Minister of Andhra Pradesh who being a doctor himself gave a boost to the activities of the association.

It was the premier branch in the country to start the College of General Practitioners, Hyderabad in 1960 under its aegis on the same pattern as was prevalent in the UK. The stalwarts behind this monumental decision were Dr. K. N. Waghray, Dr. Bankat Chandra, Dr. (Mrs.) Shantabai Satwalekar, Dr. Major K. N. Rao, Dr. R. K. Bhandari, Dr. R. D. Davare, Dr. Vasudeva Rao & Dr. U. R. Pargaonkar.

IMA Hyderabad City Branch has celebrated Diamond Jubilee for the whole year 1999-2000. Inaugural function was held on 19th September 1999 inaugurated by His Excellency, Dr. C. Ranga Rajan, the then Governor of Andhra Pradesh.

IMA Hyderabad City Branch hosted AACIMA – 2005, Annual Academic Conference of IMA, AP State

The Hyderabad City Branch of IMA had the distinction of holding the State Level Conferences in the year 1957, 1967 1977, 1993. The Hyderabad City Branch of IMA also had the honour of hosting the prestigious National Conference of IMA in the year 1941, 1953 & 1998.
